++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells Saturday. Mainly dry. Slight frost overnight.

Today:
A fine and dry day though cold with an early frost, any fog patches quickly clearing to sunshine. Some light winds, feeling pleasantly warm in any spells of afternoon sunshine. Becoming foggy near the Essex coast during the evening. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Areas of fog will develop early in the evening across the east, these spreading westwards to become extensive and locally freezing by the end of the night. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Sunday:
Areas of fog slowly clearing during the morning. Dry with sunny spells otherwise but fog likely to persist along coastal areas, before spreading inland later. A cold evening. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Mostly cloudy Monday and Tuesday, with fog lifting into low cloud. Best chance of any sunshine in western parts, though chilly by night. Changeable on Wednesday, with showers likely.
